

Irene Village Market

The Irene Village Market is an art market that is held at the Smuts House Museum in Irene, Centurion. The Irene Village Market is about 40 km from Johannesburg. The market is held on the second and last Saturday of every month. The Market provides you with loads of entertainment, 300 exhibits with wares ranging from art and crafts to clothing, delicacies, antiques, flowers and curio. Only original art and crafts are traded at the Irene Village Market. Exhibitors and their wares undergo a strict selection process so that only the best is available for you.

The village market received many accolades from the likes of Getaway magazine, provides entertainment and contributes to the rich historic and natural heritage of Irene village. True to its nature as a family venue, the Village Market offers excellent kids' entertainment such as pony and camel rides, candle-making, jumping-castles and many other activities meant to keep the kids safely occupied while the parents are off to a truly unique shopping experience.

The market opens at 09:00 and ends at 14:00.
